

Use of information summary table

Action	OT Act	Family Violence Act
Information already held by agency/organisation	Can use information for a purpose in section 66C(a) regardless of the purpose for which it was originally collected	Can only use information for purpose for which it was collected unless an IPP10 exception applies
Requesting information from an agency/organisation	Can request information for a purpose in section 66C(a)	Can request information for a purpose in section 20(1)
Disclosing information to an agency/organisation	Must have a reasonable belief that the disclosure will achieve on the purposes in section 66C(a)	Must have a reasonable belief that the disclosure will achieve on the purposes in section 20(1)
Use of information disclosed to and held by agency/organisation	Can only use information it received and holds for the purpose it was collected unless an IPP 10 exception applies	Can only use information it received and holds for the purpose it was collected unless an IPP 10 exception applies
Use of information heard at meeting but not held by agency or organisation	Wellbeing and safety purposes The information likely not collected and held by the agency/organisation so it will need to request it using section 66C(b). Unrelated purposes Agency/organisation will need to request information using an alternative mechanism	Family Violence purposes The information is likely not collected and held by the agency/organisation so it will need to request it using section 20(4). Unrelated purposes Agency/organisation will need to request information using an alternative mechanism

